Comment

The Office of Inmate Advocacy was established in 1974 within the Office of the Public Defender. Its duties were to "represent the interests of inmates in such disputes and litigation, as will, in the discretion of the Public Defender, best advance the interests of inmates as a class on an issue of general application to them, and may act as representative of inmates with any principal department or other instrumentality of State, county or local government." (Chap. 27, Laws of New Jersey, 1974).

In 1994, the Office of Inmate Advocacy ceased independent operation when its responsibilities were restructured and transferred to the Public Defender (P.L.1994, c.58) (C.52:27E-50 et al.). See also the Corrections Ombudsman, which was established in 2005 within the Public Advocate and had similar, but not identical, responsibilities.

The language in subsection n. is no longer necessary and seems to be appropriate for removal from the statute.

N.J.S. 30:1B-6.6. Legislative findings and declarations; incarcerated primary caretaker parents

The Legislature finds and declares:

a. A growing segment of the prison population typically is excluded from the criminal justice reform conversation and does not get the attention it deserves: primary caretaker parents behind bars. According to the Sentencing Project, in 2004, 52 percent of ~~inmates~~ persons who are incarcerated in state prisons and 63 percent in federal prisons were parents of minor children. Most parents in prison are fathers, but the rate of female incarceration in America is growing at an alarming rate. While the number of fathers in prison increased 76 percent between 1991 and 2007, the number of mothers in prison increased by 122 percent during that period.

b. Presumably, the considerable growth in incarcerated parents represents a considerable growth in incarcerated primary caretaker parents. This is significant because these parents face unique challenges. Their incarceration is not their burden to alone share; it also greatly impacts their family. Many incarcerated primary caretaker parents also are faced with difficult and competing choices, like whether to use their limited funds to communicate with their children or in the case of ~~female inmates~~ women who are incarcerated, to purchase hygiene products in the commissary.

c. Therefore, it is necessary to create a strengthened Corrections Ombudsperson in the Office of the Corrections Ombudsperson to enforce the rights of ~~inmates~~ persons who are incarcerated, provide access to the benefits to which they are entitled, and ensure accountability, transparency, monitoring, and continued improvements within all correctional facilities.

d. It is time for this State to focus on its incarcerated primary caretaker parents and provide them with the protections they deserve.

(14) An ~~an~~ inmate person who is incarcerated and in a State correctional facility shall not be directly released from isolated confinement to the community during the final 180 days of the ~~inmate's~~ person's term of incarceration, unless it is necessary for the safety of the ~~inmate~~ person who is incarcerated, staff, other ~~inmates~~ persons who are incarcerated, or the public. An ~~an~~ inmate person who is incarcerated in a county correctional facility shall not be directly released from isolated confinement to the community during the final 30 days of the ~~inmate's~~ person's term of incarceration, unless it is necessary for the safety of the ~~inmate~~ person who is incarcerated, staff, other ~~inmates~~ persons who are incarcerated, or the public.

c. ~~An inmate~~ person who is incarcerated shall not be placed in isolated confinement or in any other cell or other holding or living space, in any facility, with one or more ~~inmates~~ persons if there is reasonable cause to believe that there is a risk of harm or harassment, intimidation, extortion, or other physical or emotional abuse to that ~~inmate~~ person or another ~~inmate~~ person in that placement.

d. Isolated confinement shall be permitted under limited circumstances as follows:

(1) The facility administrator or designated shift commander determines that a facility-wide lock down is required to ensure the safety of ~~inmates~~ the persons who are incarcerated in the facility until the administrator or shift commander determines that these circumstances no longer exist. The facility administrator or shift commander shall document specific reasons why any lockdown is necessary for more than 24 hours, and why less restrictive interventions are insufficient to accomplish the facility's safety goals. Within 15 days the commissioner shall publish the reasons on the Department of Corrections website and provide meaningful notice of the reasons for the lockdown to the Legislature.

(2) The facility administrator determines that ~~an inmate~~ person who is incarcerated should be placed in emergency confinement, provided that:

(a) ~~an inmate~~ the person shall not be held in emergency confinement for more than 24 hours; and

(b) ~~an inmate~~ the person who is held in emergency confinement in a State correctional facility shall receive an initial medical and mental health evaluation immediately prior to placement in emergency confinement and a personal and comprehensive medical and mental health evaluation within 24 hours. The examination shall be conducted by a member of the medical staff within 12 hours of confinement and the comprehensive medical and mental health evaluation within 72 hours. Reports of these evaluations shall be immediately provided to the facility administrator.

(3) A clinician, based on a personal examination, determines that ~~an inmate~~ person who is incarcerated should be placed or retained in medical isolation.

The inmate person may be placed in voluntary protective custody only with informed, voluntary consent and when there is reasonable cause to believe that confinement is necessary to prevent reasonably foreseeable harm. When an inmate person makes an informed voluntary request for protective custody, the correctional facility shall bear the burden of establishing a basis for refusing the request.

(b) The inmate person may be placed in involuntary protective custody only when there is clear and convincing evidence that confinement is necessary to prevent reasonably foreseeable harm and that a less restrictive intervention would not be sufficient to prevent the harm.

(c) An inmate person who is incarcerated and who is placed in protective custody shall receive similar opportunities for activities, movement, and social interaction, consistent with their safety and the safety of others, as are inmates persons who are incarcerated in the general population of the facility.

(d) An inmate person who is incarcerated and subject to removal from protective custody shall be provided with a timely, fair, and meaningful opportunity to contest the removal.

(e) An inmate person who is incarcerated and who may be placed or currently is in voluntary protective custody may opt out of that status by providing informed, voluntary, written refusal of that status.

(f) The facility administrator shall place an inmate person who is incarcerated in a less restrictive intervention, including transfer to the general population of another institution or to a special-purpose housing unit for inmates persons who face similar threats, before placing the inmate person in isolated confinement for protection unless the inmate person poses a security risk so great that transferring the inmate person would be insufficient to ensure the inmate's person's safety.

Comment

Counties have always had and continue to have duties in regard to provide public assistance. Numerous existing provisions mandate the public policy of the State: “[E]very needy person shall ... be entitled to receive such public assistance as may be appropriate” (44:8-109), “The State shall provide ... public assistance to the persons eligible therefore” (44:8-114), “Immediate public assistance shall be rendered promptly to any needed person” (44:8-120), et al.

Pursuant to the federal “Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996,” 42 U.S.C. Sect. 601 et seq., New Jersey adopted its “Work First New Jersey Act” in 1997, which replaced earlier aid/assistance to dependent children laws. It provides that “The county agency shall be responsible for implementing the Work First New Jersey program in accordance with regulations adopted by the Commissioner and ensuring that all eligible persons residing in the county have access to benefits” N.J.S. 44:10-73(a). The Act further states, “The Commissioner shall allocate among the counties the federal funding available for administrative costs from the federal block grant funds for temporary assistance for needy families provided to New Jersey” N.J.S. 44:10-74(a). The draft provision states explicitly at the outset that the county level is responsible for administering federal and state funds. Subsection (a) also provides for additional assistance as needed.

Subsection (b) derives from 44:1-20. Subsections (d) and (f) streamline current law. Subsection (f) derives from 44:8-145.3
